

I am an over the road trucker. Being as how I spend a lot of time in rural areas of the country, Where regular radio reception is sketchy at best, I depend on my Satellite Radio (XM) to provide me with up to the minute weather reports and traffic information in and about the major cities I may be approaching. Please do not take this away from the drivers of America. Our job is tough enough as it is.

Thank you
Dwayne R Simpkins
Msgt. U.S.A.F Retired